

Privacy Policy

Maniet Financial Services Network considers the privacy of its clients to be of fundamental importance and has established a policy to maintain the privacy of the information you share with us. Pursuant to the Gramm Leach Bliley Act, Maniet Financial Services Network, Inc. has created this privacy statement in order to comply with The Act. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for your account:

Personal Information We Collect

We do not sell any information to any third parties. However, we do collect and retain certain nonpublic personal information about you in order to complete a service or transaction, which you have requested. The extent of which is dependent upon the nature of client engagement including:

- Information we receive from you or the companies with which you have entrusted money
- An address we receive from a third party when you have moved
- Information about your insurance or investments, such as account balance and transaction activity
- Information (commonly referred to as “cookies”) collected from the Web browser of your PC that allows our website to recognize your browser

Personal Information We May Disclose

We occasionally disclose nonpublic personal information about you to third parties as permitted by law. Some instances when we share information include:

- Disclosing information to a third party in order to open or process account transactions that you request or authorize
- Disclosing information to our Broker/Dealer or Clearing Firm for the purpose of remaining compliant
- Disclosing your name and address to companies that mail fund-related materials, such as shareholder reports (note that these companies may not use the information for any other purpose)
- Disclosing information in connection with legal proceedings, such as responding to a subpoena

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to authorized employees. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

When information is shared with third parties, they are not permitted to use the information for any purpose other than to assist our servicing of your account(s) or as permitted by law.

If you close your account(s) or if we lose contact with you, we will continue to share information in accordance with our current privacy policy and practices. Records will be maintained for such time as required by federal and state securities laws.

If you determine that your account is ever inaccurate, incomplete, or in need of updating; please do not hesitate to contact us by phone, write us, or visit our office.

These measures reflect our commitment to maintaining the privacy of your confidential information. We appreciate the confidence you have shown by entrusting us with your assets.
